

Santa Clara, Day 2 Workshop

Friday, Nov. 4, 2011

Location: Wiegand Room, Arts and Sciences Building, Santa Clara University

Participants: Françoise Baylis, Zoë Bernatsky, Kimberley Brownlee, Jocelyn Downie, Chloë Fitzgerald, Mane Hajdin, Mike Hickson, Lori Kantymir, Avery Kolers, Carolyn McLeod, Emily Parker, Shannon Vallor, and Daniel Weinstock

Purpose: to provide feedback on work in progress for the Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR) grant, "Let Conscience Be Their Guide? Conscientious Refusals in Reproductive Health Care"

Schedule:

8:45-9:00am	Welcome and introductions
9:00-9:45am	Kolers , "Am I My Profession's Keeper?"
9:45-10:30am	Brownlee , "Many Refusals in Health Care are not Conscientious and It Does Not Matter"
10:30-10:45am	BREAK
10:45-11:30am	Baylis , "Conscience, Due Diligence, Undue Deference"
11:45am-1:15pm	LUNCH hosted by the Santa Clara Philosophy Department, SCU Faculty Club
1:30-2:15pm	Kantymir & McLeod , "Justification for Conscientious Objection in Health Care"
2:15-3:00pm	Weinstock , "Should We Accommodate Religiously-Based Claims of Conscience in the Practice of Medicine?"
3:00-3:30pm	BREAK
3:30-4:15pm	Downie , TBA
6:00pm	DINNER at P.F. Chang's in San Jose